II I The Education of the Human Race. i. Analysis. Hugo Goring, in the nineteenth volume of Lessing s Sdmtliche Werke in the Cotta Library, writes the following introduction to Lessing s tractate: The first half of this profound treatise, Lessing published in 1777 with the four Wolfenbittel Fragments of an Unknown. (J SS). In tne summer of 1777 he wrote the second half. In 1780 the conclusion appeared. In the meantime occurred the production of the dramatic poem Nathan the Wise. With the publication of the first 53 paragraphs, Lessing had remarked by way of self-criticism: The author of this work may not be, by any means, so heterodox as he, at first sight, appears to be. He develops, in the course of his work, the relation of education to revelation; secures an insight into the stages of education and the...
