By Jan Ewing

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A SCREENPLAY CONSORTIUM CONGLOMERATES (C/C) is an extremely wealthy, multinational banking corporation specializing in credit cards. Its chairman, ALPHONSO RAND, is a tennis fanatic. Consequently, when it s decided by the C/C board to sponsor a sporting event as a promotional vehicle in C/C s secondary markets, Rand cleverly maneuvers the emphasis away from golf (the obsession of the company s president RON LAZAR) and creates the STAR SPANGLED TENNIS TOUR (SSTT), a second level men s tennis circuit for aspiring players. The management of the SSTT settles on AUDREY CUTENICK, a close friend of Lazar s (especially promoted from Word Processing for the task) who knows nothing about tennis and even less about management. She makes decisions with her glands instead of her head and is susceptible to any male under sixty-five. Thus, when BARRY HONEYCUT, a southwestern land-sales swindler, appears at C/C headquarters in New York City, Audrey is smitten and agrees to the following. Barry is the owner of the non-existent FERTILE VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB near Yucca Flats, Nevada. He was stuck with acres of...
