We have looked back upon the two centuries of diversified experience through which our Society has now passed, - of trials from without, and trials not less proving from within. Marked as this experience has been by the gracious manifestations, of the faithfulness and love of Him who first united our forefathers in religious fellowship, we have desired that our hearts may be open to those lessons of warning, instruction or encouragement which He may design for us in relation to our present position. Let it not be forgotten that vital Christianity cannot be transmitted as an inheritance to posterity. In each member of every successive generation the struggle is renewed with sin and evil in ever-varying forms. Each must submit to the same transforming work of Divine grace, if he would realise for himself an adoption into the family of the redeemed.
