Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Gossip From Paris During the Second Empire The letters from which the following selections have been made were sent daily from Paris during the years 1864 to 1870, by Mr. Anthony B. North Peat, Attache au Cabinet du Ministre de l Interieur, who died from the effects of an accident during the early days of the siege of Paris. They were addressed mainly to the readers of the Morning Star, a daily London paper, the organ of the Manchester school of politics, but several appeared elsewhere, notably in The Yorkshire Post. Thanks are due to the proprietors of the latter paper, and to the proprietors of the Daily News, with which the Morning Star was incorporated when it ceased to exist as a separate paper in 1870, for their kind permission to reprint. As Attache Mr. North Peat saw every morning the telegrams which passed through the Home Office, and thus was enabled to test the accuracy of current reports.
