Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Scrannel Pipe: A Book of Verse There were three men on Golgotha Nailed on the gallows tree, And Mary the Lady of Life came there, Weeping before the three. And Christ that was Dead spake from the tree: Mother, what care thee grieves? And Mary the Mother answered him: Dear Son, I weep for the thieves. And a thief that was dead looked down on her From the tree whereon he hung, And his bloody hair blew out on the wind, And he spake with a living tongue: They have split my palms with the piercing nails, They have broken me with spears, But they cannot slay the spirit in me, Nor the triumph in my ears. I was a King in the North Country, A man and a maker of men, And I wrought great evil in sorrow and shame, But my heart is born again. Men shall die in torment and fear Reaping the bitter sheaves. This they remember when they die, Mary wept for the thieves. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
