LONDON BORN: A MEMOIR OF A FORGOTTEN CITY (PAPERBACK)

HarperCollins Publishers, United Kingdom, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 126 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An extraordinary memoir from a man in his nineties who remembers everyday life in a North London now long gone: the hardships and deprivations of a life of poverty but also the resourcefulness and fortitude of a community determined to survive between the wars. In London Born, Sid remembers the city that emerged from the First World War and recreates the daily life of the people living in the notorious street known as Tiger Bay. He describes the drinking and merrymaking, the poverty and unemployment - and the villainy. With relish he relates how youthful high spirits and a refusal to accept the hardship of the times...
