Chippewa Falls one Monday morning and found that all pupils who entered the domestic science classes left a folded paper on the teachers desk. On examination of some of the papers they were found to consist of a complete record of all the work done at home, by the pupils during the past week. In every case the record was signed by the mother. The inspector asked for, and was given, one weeks complete file of records for 6th, 7th, 8th grades and for freshman year of high school, probably one hundred records in all. Two papers contained no report. One paper stated, I did no work at all last week, I was sick. The following statement was found on one seventh grade report, I made a batch of doughnuts, they got good, at least my father said so. Another paper contained a daily record of work and among the items given for Saturday were the following, Threw a load of kindling wood into the cellar, took my music lesson, and had my picture taken. The accompanying record is a fair average of those secured and is given here because it shows the wide range of possibilities in the work, Housekeeping. I. ura Case. (This report is given exactly as it was received.) I kept my room in order and made the beds each day. I swept the upstairs floors once, and swept the kitchen eight times. I washed the dishes on an average of...
