At ten the chaplain will take her place for two hours. At twelve you may walk in the grounds round the house for half an hour. At one we dine. At two you shall have another hour from Mademoiselle Delphine. From three to five you may walk with your attendants. Supper is at eight; and during the evening you may prepare your tasks for the next day. Rollo and Maia looked at each other. It was not so very bad; still it sounded rather severe. Rollo took courage.[.].
