Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 216 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This wonderful Circus inspired picture book from The Culinary Children s Library is for toddlers and young children alike. With wonderful illustrations, rhymes and recipes to make with adult supervision it is a re-formatted version of Food for Elephants for older readers. Suited to Children from 2-14 years. A fun cookbook for children of all ages. With full page color illustrations in the format of a picture book it has a rhyming story for each of the circus characters which builds to an ending where they are all set free. The recipes have been specifically designed for developing palates but are easily mastered by young cooking enthusiasts, with adult supervision, from 2-14 years of age. Each recipe is part of a magical, rhyming storyline of the circus and its animals which include the Runaway girl, giraffe, zebra, hippo, tiger, lion and of course the elephant. Recipes include caramel coated popcorn, healthy beansprout wraps, striped pasta, oven baked crumbed cutlets, soft meatballs in a cream sauce that children love and similar to the ones Ikea serve, a fried rice, salad, banana dessert and chocolate peanut clusters. For toddlers who love finger food to fussy eaters the recipes have been developed so children can not only make them but also enjoy and share them with family and friends. The full page color pictures are so delightful and have been arranged one per page so you will can buy a second book just to frame them for your child s bedroom. The illustrations framed would make a wonder gift in themselves. This is a versatile and morally sound children s rhyming picture book had been designed by...
