

Specifications Grading: Restoring Rigor, Motivating Students, and Saving Faculty Time (Paperback)

By Linda B. Nilson

Stylus Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In her latest book Linda Nilson puts forward an innovative but practical and tested approach to grading that can demonstrably raise academic standards, motivate students, tie their achievement of learning outcomes to their course grades, save faculty time and stress, and provide the reliable gauge of student learning that the public and employers are looking for. She argues that the grading system most commonly in use now is unwieldy, imprecise and unnecessarily complex, involving too many rating levels for too many individual assignments and tests, and based on a hairsplitting point structure that obscures the underlying criteria and encourages students to challenge their grades. This new specifications grading paradigm restructures assessments to streamline the grading process and greatly reduce grading time, empower students to choose the level of attainment they want to achieve, reduce antagonism between the evaluator and the evaluated, and increase student receptivity to meaningful feedback, thus facilitating the learning process - all while upholding rigor. In addition, specs grading increases students motivation to do well by making expectations clear, lowering their stress and giving them agency in...
