Mr. Benedict: I wish to second the remarks of Mr. Lawler, of New Orleans, and assure you that if the convention goes to that city it will be heartily welcomed. I invite you on behalf of the New Orleans Board of Trade to meet in our city. I assure you if you meet there the interests of the city of New Orleans will be your interests. We have no doubt of being able to entertain the convention. We are now preparing to build a large auditorium; this will probably be completed in time for the next convention. I concur in everything my friend Mr. Lawler said for the city of New Orleans. Mr. Dillenbeck: I move that all communications, both written and oral, be referred to the Committee on Place. The motion was seconded and carried. Mr.Clutter: You have honored me, as the solicitor of this place, by coining here for your ninth annual meeting, and I thank you most heartily for it. In selecting the place for the next meeting you should consider where you will get the most shippers to come. That seems to be the desire of everybody. Think of all the meetings we have had, and consider where you have had the largest number of shippers to meet you. Detroit, St. Louis, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Buffalo, Indianapolis, or here? We are all anxious to have a larger number of the shippers in the Association. I believe...
