

Historical Gold Coins of Mughals

By Satya Pratap Singh

2014. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 94 About the book:- Historical Gold Coins of Mughals were minted in the 16th century. Had these coins not been listed for auction in Switzerland, everybody would have been totally in dark about the facts of the history and about the glorious heritage of our culture? Despite failure of our Ambassador on the face of non-cooperation of the Swiss Government had, the Indian government had not filed a First Information Report with the Interpol through the CBI the story about these precious coins would have never seen the light. Ironically, the Andhra Government did not give permission to the CBI to investigate the case and later the Central Economic Intelligence Bureau (CEIB) was assigned to conduct the probe, that are still remains in conclusive. S.P. Singh was born on 1st July 1941 in a small village called Arki in Banda District (Now Chitrakoot). He joined the Indian Navy at the tender age of sixteen and took active part in GOA operations in December 1961. After being commissioned in the Army, served in the committed formations in NEFA (now Arunachal Pradesh) and Jammu and Kashmir. He switched over to the Indian Revenue since 1971. It is indeed creditable that he...
